

Inspired by London Fashion Week

Get ahead of the trends with these new arrivals

For many of us waiting to see what the new sartorial trends will be for the year ahead, London fashion Week is a key event in the calendar. So, if you've been waiting with bated breath, you'll be pleased to know that the show will still be taking place this year, albeit online. From 19-23 February 2021, you'll be able to stream the schedule, explore the designers and watch, listen and read the best creative content coming out of London! Find out more here.

But, if you're keen to get ahead of the trends and grab yourself some catwalk-worthy attire, we've got some top picks from the stores at Lewisham Shopping Centre. And what's more, they're all available to purchase online now with delivery direct to your door.

Westside Clothing

Christian Louboutin Paqueboat deck shoes, £499

Red soles are not just for the ladies, you know? These black leather deck shoes from Christian Louboutin are a high-end take on the nautical classic, and just perfect for spring-summer adventures, whether on land or offshore! Crafted in Italy, featuring a chunky trainer-inspired white rubber midsole and penny slits, these stunning shoes are, of course, completed with the iconic red underside. Order now from Westside Clothing.

M&S

Autograph leather culottes, £199

Whether it's the real deal or vegan-friendly PU, the leather-look is everywhere right now. If you're looking to try out the trend, these gorgeous culottes from M&S are a real investment piece. Crafted from sustainably sourced and buttery soft nappa leather, and with an elasticated high waist for all-day comfort, they're so good you won't want to get out of them!

Next

Kurt Geiger London Kensington bag, £269

You might not know that along with their own-brand fashion, Next stocks lots of designer ranges. And, they're often just a fraction of the price you'd pay if you bought direct! So, if you're a fan of quality designer bags, you're going to love the XXL Rainbow Kensington shoulder bag from Kurt Geiger London. Featuring the brand's emblematic eagle-head charm, alongside its on-trend rainbow pattern, this little number is sure to turn heads.

Select

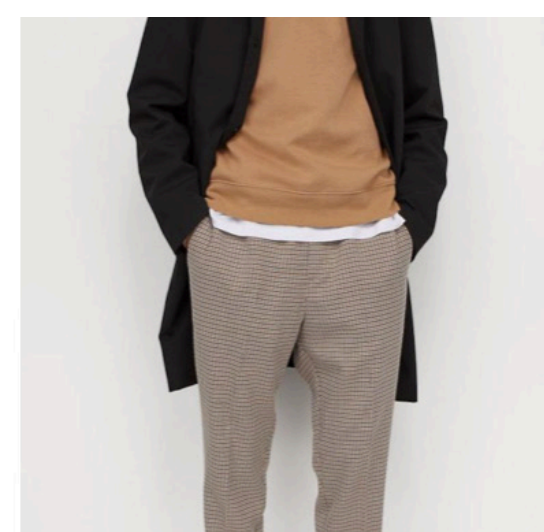

Mint tailored jacket, £10.99

Who said that catwalk style has to cost the earth? Tailoring is big news right now, so this minty fresh single-breasted jacket from Select is the ideal way to brighten your wardrobe for spring. Featuring a chic, structured design with pocket detailing, this jacket is a must-have staple – ideal for 9-5 (even if it is just for that Zoom call!) or for dressing down with your favourite skinny jeans.

TK Maxx

Jimmy Choo sunglasses, £69.99

Whether you're a super model fresh from the catwalk, a Hollywood A-lister, or just pottering around in your garden, oversized sunglasses are an absolute must for the season ahead. Featuring signature Jimmy Choo branding, along with tinted UV non-prescription lenses, not only do these glasses offer brilliant protection from the sun's rays, you'll also be the envy of all your friends. Available now from TK Maxx. Glasses case included.

H&M

Slim-fit joggers, £24.99

With so many people working from home right now, it's never been more important to be comfortable. So, it's not surprising that loungewear has started to have an influence on the fashion world. These stylish checkered ankle-length men's joggers from H&M offer the best of both worlds – extreme comfort without compromising on style!
